

Rose Tran

Second-year majoring in Health Promotion with a Behavioral Medicine emphasis and Global Health minor at the University of Georgia seeking meaningful community outreach and undergraduate research experience to take into a future career in public health and patient care.

255 The Preserve Drive
Athens, GA 30606
(478) 390-7225
rht09734@uga.edu
tran.rose16@gmail.com

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Atrium Health Medical Center, Macon, GA — Student Volunteer

AUGUST 2019 - JUNE 2021

- Assisted doctors, nurses, and technicians in providing superior service during their stay in the hospital
- Recorded patient satisfaction and feedback
- Worked alongside department heads to organize and file important paperwork

North Macon Presbyterian Church, Macon, GA — Nursery Volunteer

MARCH 2018 - MARCH 2021

- Offered child care services to busy mothers during both church services and day care services
- Developed interpersonal skills through working with other nursery staff, families and young children

The American Red Cross, Macon, GA — Blood Drive Coordinator

JANUARY 2019 - PRESENT

- Planned and orchestrated blood drives at my school to raise awareness of the need and importance of blood donations
- Collaborated with local chapter to ensure smooth process and coordination of blood collectors

EDUCATION

Mercer University, Macon, GA — Bachelor's

AUGUST 2020 - MAY 2021

GPA: 3.53 Freshman Year; University Honors Program, Tift Scholar, Opportunity Scholars, Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, MerServe

University of Georgia, Athens, GA — Bachelor's

AUGUST 2021 - PRESENT

GPA: 3.63 Peyton Anderson Scholar, Public Service and Outreach Student Scholar; Volunteers Around the World, UGA HERO's

SKILLS

Data Collection

Lab Safety

Microsoft Office

Strong Essay and Research
Paper Writer

Adaptability

AWARDS

Dean's List

MU (Fall 2020 and Spring 2021)

UGA (Fall 2021)

Opportunity Scholars Highest GPA

MU (Fall 2020)

Salutatorian

Howard High School (Spring 2020)

LANGUAGES

English-Fluent

Vietnamese-Native

Spanish-Intermediate

